

Lock out & Emergency Panel Switch

Emergency stop switches ensure the safety of people and machinery by delivering a consistent response when the system requires an instant shutdown of machine, system or process. Designed for long life and reliability.